

Story Exchange Terms and Conditions:

Thanks for using the Story Exchange to create a digital book about your Newfoundland and Labrador adventure. In order to let us publicize your stories via our website, in social media, and elsewhere, we need to receive your prior permission by agreeing to the following simple conditions:

The undersigned hereby grants to Newfoundland and Labrador Tourism:

- the right throughout the world, in perpetuity, and without requiring compensation or remuneration, to use, without limitation or exception, in any manner or media whatsoever (including, without limitation, print, broadcast the internet and social media): (i) your name, image/likeness, voice, address, City, Province or Territory; (ii) and/or your photographs and/or statements and/or, in whole or part, your texts and stories included in your submission; and
- your acknowledgement and agreement that whatever you submit is your original work of authorship, and does not violate any third-party's proprietary or intellectual property or other rights.
- to store user data associated with social media accounts: profile picture and name. This is how we will label your digital book and is required to reduce spam and inappropriate content.

If you decide to delete your digital book, you can email yourstory@storyexchange.com with your profile name and book title. Your digital book and associated user data will be deleted within 72 hours.
